CONDITIONS

- Translations refer to the final translated document and are counted on the basis of 250-words/ page. (Except for diplomas, civil registry documents, NBI and police clearances, driving licenses, etc., which are computed on a per input-page basis).
- Translations consisting of several pages shall be computed according to the total number of pages as stated above.
- Any document or part of documents resulting in less than 250 words translation will be charged as a full page. As soon as page exceeds 250 words, an additional page will be counted.
- For documents exceeding 1,000 words the Client and Società Dante Alighieri shall reach an agreement on the delivery date of the translation.
- 50% down payment is required once the contract is finalized. This is based on the total number of input pages (number of pages to be translated).
- If during the performance of the service, the Client orders a suspension of the service, and pre-terminates the agreement, the 50% deposit shall be forfeited by way of penalty and/or liquidated damages. In the event that the Client should-pull-out the finished translation, he shall be obliged to pay the remaining balance of 50%.
In the event that the Client should pull out "same day" translations, shall not be refunded for any amount paid and shall be obliged to pay the full amount.
- Delays may occur due to possible necessity for specialized consultations. In such case, Società Dante Alighieri shall inform the Client.
- During declared holidays, Società Dante Alighieri shall not entertain any emergency whatsoever.

GUARANTEE

Società Dante Alighieri guarantees that it shall produce a finished translation in conformity with the generally accepted norm in Italian translation. The Customer however concedes that translation is not an exact science and the final translation may consequently differ from other acceptable translations.
